CCTV and Audio Recording Policy:

Whiskers Vets operates closed circuit television (CCTV) and audio recording systems to help provide a safe and secure environment for our staff, clients, visitors, and animals in our care. Audio recording is also used on our telephone systems for training, monitoring, and record-keeping purposes.

This policy explains how CCTV images and audio recordings are used, stored, and managed in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the Data Protection Act 2018, and relevant guidance from the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).

CCTV and audio recording systems are used for the following purposes:

- To promote the safety and security of clients, visitors, staff, and animals
- To support compliance with health and safety policies and procedures
- To deter and detect crime, theft, or inappropriate behaviour
- To assist with investigations into incidents, complaints, disputes, or legal claims
- To monitor the security of Whiskers Vets premises

CCTV cameras are installed in the external areas of Whiskers Vets premises. Cameras are positioned to capture clear images while minimising intrusion into private areas. All cameras are clearly visible, and appropriate signage is displayed to inform staff, clients, and visitors that CCTV is in operation.

Telephone calls to and from Whiskers Vets may be recorded. Callers are informed of audio recording at the start of the call or through automated messaging.

CCTV footage and audio recordings are retained only for as long as necessary to fulfil their intended purposes.

CCTV footage is automatically overwritten on a rolling basis, typically within approximately 28 days. Where footage is required for a specific and legitimate purpose, such as an ongoing investigation, complaint, or legal matter, it may be retained for longer and will be securely stored with restricted access.

Audio recordings of telephone calls are retained for 90 days unless required for a specific and legitimate purpose, such as an ongoing investigation, complaint, or legal matter, it may be retained for longer and will be securely stored with restricted access.

Individuals' Rights:

Images and audio recordings that identify individuals are considered personal data. Individuals whose personal data is captured have rights under UK GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018, including the right to:

- Request access to their personal data
- Request rectification or erasure in certain circumstances
- Request restriction of processing
- Object to processing where applicable

Requests to exercise these rights should be made in writing and accompanied by proof of identity. Requests should be directed to Whiskers Vets' Data Protection Officer or Practice Manager.

Molevalley Farmers Ltd also have CCTV covering their carpark for the purposes of prevention and detection of crime.

How Data accuracy and security:

Whiskers Vets will endeavour to ensure that all personal data is up to date and accurate. You are responsible for making sure you give us accurate and up to date information. If you provide information for another person, you will need to tell them how to find the Privacy Notice and make sure they agree to us using their information for the purposes set out in it.

Please be reassured that we only share the information that is necessary at the time, and confirm that strict contracts are in place to ensure any third parties also keep your information secure.

An individual has the right to request that any out of date, irrelevant or inaccurate information about them is erased or corrected (subject to certain exemptions and limitations) under the GDPR Law.

Whiskers Vets will take appropriate technical and organisation steps to ensure the security of personal data about individuals, including policies around the use of personal data, and the access to our systems. All staff are made aware of this policy and their duties under the GDPR Law and will receive relevant training.

16 or under:

We are concerned to protect the privacy of children aged 16 or under. If you are aged 16 or under, please get your parent/guardian's permission beforehand whenever you provide us with personal information.

Transfer and storage of your personal data:

We work with some third parties that are based outside of the European Economic Area (EEA), including but not limited to the use of Outlook, Xero, Signwell, MailChimp and Facebook.

Your consent to this Privacy Policy followed by Your submission of such information represents Your agreement to that transfer.

The Company will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that Your data is treated securely and in accordance with this Privacy Policy and no transfer of Your Personal Data will take place to an organisation or a country unless there are adequate controls in place including the security of Your data and other personal information.

Retention of data:

We review our retention periods for personal information on a regular basis. We are legally required to hold some types of information to fulfil our statutory obligations. We will hold your personal information on our systems for as long as is necessary for the relevant activity, or as long as is set out in any relevant contract you hold with us. We will continue to retain personal data securely and only in line with how long it is necessary to keep for a legitimate and lawful reason. Historically, clinical records are advised to be retained for seven years, with records of the supply and administrator of POM-V and POM-VPS medicines being kept for five years. A limited and reasonable amount of information will be kept for archiving purposes, for example and even where you have requested we no longer keep in touch with you, we need to keep a record of the fact in order to fulfil your wishes (called a 'suppression record').

The right to be forgotten:

Whiskers Vets must retain certain personal information where required to do so by law, including records necessary for taxation and accounting purposes. To meet the requirements of our professional indemnity insurance, we securely retain past client records for a minimum of seven years. The information held may include a client's name, postal address, email address, and telephone number. Financial information such as bank account details is not retained.

Security of Your Personal Data:

The security of Your Personal Data is important to Us, but remember that no method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure. While We strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect Your Personal Data, We cannot guarantee its absolute security.
